The authors and artists behind the posters

The main content area is divided into two sections. The left section features a quote: "Silence remains, inescapably, a form of speech." attributed to Susan Sontag. Below the quote is a poster design by Arnold Schwartzman, which shows several hands in various positions, each with a letter below it: S, I, L, E.

The right section is titled "Commentary" and features a video player with a progress bar showing 00:00 / 01:50. Below the video player, the text reads "by Erica Brown" and "We have all sat in the awkward silence between words, when silence did the heavy lifting. It created a space for thought. It acknowledged that a quick answer is not always a right answer. It acknowledged the mystery that words not only describe but also limit our understanding of the universe."
